“ I first met Big Bill as my family called him when I was about 8 year's old .He was a old friend of my father's Ruben Scroggins . I always loved to go see him and Doris when I was younger there in Herrick and we would sit and visit with them. I will cherish those memories forever and I will always love you Bill you was larger then life to me .You was always one of my heroes next to my dad.I know your up in Heaven with my parent's now.I miss and love you all so much.R.I.P. Big Man ❤️
