“ Ernie was my Uncle by marriage for years, I spent many hours and sometimes week at his home. He was so much fun to be around. I have always and always will cherish the time spent with him. Even toh i am no longer part of his family, he always still considered me a niece. i will always call him UNCLE ERNIE. As I always have. My heart goes out to his family and friends a wonderful person he was. He sure will be missed by many. Love you all
