“ Some of the things I especially remember about Eleanor was what a hard worker she was. She always was neatly dressed, everything in place, jeans pressed and always looked nice. Eleanor was always nice to us, the Forbus kids, when not everyone was, and we appreciated it. She was tough and a survivor, no matter what life handed her.

“ Eleanor Cook was the strongest woman I know. She was an amazing woman with the heart of a lion. She worked hard everyday of her life and her very presence demanded respect. This woman I speak of is my Grandma. God will look out for you now. I will miss you! Your Grandson, Jeff Cameron
