“ It has been a while since we have spoken cousin....for that....I am sorry....It saddened me greatly to hear this news about you. Even harder to accept since most of my memories are of us in our much younger days....I still smile when I remember all the holidays at Grandma's....or when she would try to watch all of us kids at once....we so must have made her crazy. Those are good memories of all of us...and the bond that held us all together even though we lived so far apart. Be at peace cousin....

“ I am so sorry for losing a good soul like John. John was kind, a generous personal nature and his person who was at peace with his surroundings. I will always be thankful for sharing time with such a kind soul and I will always remember John. I give my condolences to his family and anyone who misses John as I will.
