“ I remember years ago when she had to go to the store and asked me to watch what she was cooking and I didn't like the smell of it but I watched it anyways. It was cabbage Boiling and it smelled gross and I told her that. We had a good laugh and I had to get out of the house for a little bit. She was a Wonderful Woman. RIP

“ Leona Angeline, our wonderful Aunt Lee, was always so welcoming and full of joy. She always had a smile and a sparkle in her eyes, and was such a good cook. She loved horses and had wonderful pictures of them in her house. She told me she used to ride when she was growing up in Chicago. She will be missed and long remembered. Blessings to her family.
