“ Deepest sympathy to everyone in the Durbin and Sarver families. Marette was a wonderful woman; a sister, a mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She filled so many roles and everyone always knew Marette was in their corner. She loved her family and it showed in everything she did. That was the Marette I knew, and now I will carry forward the things I learned from her and the love I felt from her throughout my adult life. Such a loss. I'm grateful for the family times at her home, the food she could spread out, and for the love Marette always showed my children. She was a caring, loving grandmother and mother. RIP Marette and thank you for the good memories!

“ My sincere condolences to the family in this time of loss. While I did not know Marette personally, I want to share something that has helped me during times of loss. God's promises in the Bible about a resurrection of our loved ones who have died bring so much comfort. At Isaiah 26:19, Jehovah God reassures us, "Your dead will live... And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." Can you imagine the joy we can look forward to in being reunited with those we love who have died? I hope this scripture can help bring you comfort in this difficult time
