“ Uncle Bob, I can tell you now you were always my favorite uncle. Always a smile, and always had time for kids, no matter who they were. I will always remember your miniature car track covering most of the basement, and the candy and cookie drawer. One of my earliest memories was that you had a color t.v. Before anyone else did. Sunday night trek down the block to Bob and Dorothy's to watch The FBI. I know you're in heaven looking for your Dorothy. She'll be with my mom. I love you. Vicki

“ Ill miss him When I was in Illinois he always sung that song by Buck Owens called together again. They had a hunting dog seminar at a place there where they had a live band. I went up and ask them if they could play it for Bob and they Did. I took him in his wheel chair and danced with him twirling him around the smile on his face was priceless. Thank you Janeta and Jess for introducing me to a gentleman that loved his grandson and great granddaughter I will miss him. My Sympathy to the family My prayers are with you all.
