“ I played basketball in high school with Tim. We were ranked #1 in the state (Montana class AA at the time) for a good part of the season. He played extremely hard and I remember him for being a great shooter. RIP.

“ I graduated from high school with Tim and sat next to him in some of my classes. He was shy, quiet and very kind. Sorry does not seem to be the right word, find peace in your memories of Tim and know that he is no longer in pain. He will be with Pierre. I am sure that we all have memories and lessons from them both. He will live on in your hearts.

“ I don't even know where to start when talking about my brother and his meaning to my life. Long before he got ALS he was my hero. I loved to watch him play basketball. To me he was your Michael Jordan. I can say without a doubt that my true love of music came from Tim. He listened to everything. He didn't just listen to music. He knew the liner notes by memory. He was the reason I decided to become a radio announcer. He loved getting my air-checks in the mail to listen too! He's also the reason I love sports so much. He's the reason for many things I do and for the man I have become. He was such a bright spirit and full of fun. We loved to team up on our sister Robin to pick on her and tease her and wrestle with her when we were all young. He loved his sister Robin and he loved his brother Bill (Billy Bob) with all his heart. Tim felt the same way about Bill as I do him, as his hero. They had so much in common. I hope Mom and Dad know he LOVED them too! I could go on and on and on and on...but I'm crying now and will just say in closing that he loved me and I always knew that and he knew I loved him. I'm so glad he is at peace and that we are at peace too! It's sad but only for us. Thank you to Praire Rose for your great care of Tim while he was in your facility and thank you to Rhonda McAfee for your great love for my brother and being there for him all the years you were. You are an angel my dear! I'll never forget you Tim. NEVER!

“ I don't remeber meeting my Uncle Tim well, I was just a year old or so. I've talked to him on the phone before and about a year and a half to the day of his death I wrote him letters just about regular things like sports and how I'm doing. I knew that my uncle always had a smile on his face when you walked into the room and he enjoyed sports and music. He loved his music, which is ironic because I've always wanted to be a musician. I'll always remember my Uncle Tim, he was a nice and loving man. I love and miss you Uncle Tim.

This green candle represents balance, growth and harmony, all of which I experienced as a friend of Tim.

We began as colleagues as Case Managers for Stanislaus County, and it quickly developed into an amazing friendship. We shared music, poetry, and a true appreciation for life.

Tim introduced me to jazz and we'd have endless debates over which music was best, jazz or R&B. He loved a good debate. (all smiles) He loved jazz and I loved R & B. We eventually came to the conclusion that we could love both. Music swapping helped us get through our work day. Tim entered one of poems into a poetry contest and as a result it was published. (Thanks Tim, I'm still writing)

He's also responsible for my choice in living a healthy lifestyle. My most recent published nutrition book, was dedicated to Tim.

Tim saw in me, what I did not. I love and appreciate all that he brought into my life. I am a better person because of my friendship with Tim. Tim was the kindest and most loving person I've ever met.

Thank you my dear friend Tim, for bringing "richness" into my life.

Friends forever...

Janice

“ My brother Tim was an amazing man. He love life even in his condition right to the end. He loved sports , music, and most of all his 2 boys.My wife and I had the p[leasure of Tim living with us when he first moved to California. The memories I have of this time is priceless. He would play with our son George for hours on end in our pool. We also spent lots of time playing music trivia games whenever we could. I took Tim to his first ever nfl game when the niners played the vikings his favorite nfl team and we had a blast.Tim prided himself in being able to recite every team name in division 1 and lots from divison 2 and three. His smile was so infectious and his laugh would really get me going. I always wished he could have been out here during his ilness so we could have spent more time together. Tim I love you and miss you very much. You better practice your jump shots cause i am going to beat you again at horse as soon as we meet again. R.I.P.
